Firm Overview:

Morris, Nichols, Arsht & Tunnell LLP combines a broad national practice of corporate, intellectual property, business reorganization and restructuring, commercial law and litigation with a general business, tax, estate planning and real estate practice within the State of Delaware. The firm acts as lead counsel or co-counsel in matters of national and international significance as well as those affecting its immediate community.

Main Areas of Practice:

Banking & Financial Services:

The firm represents lenders, borrowers, issuers and investors in all forms of financing transactions. It provides bank and insurance regulatory counseling and represents clients before Delaware's Office of the State Bank Commissioner and Department of Insurance.

Business Reorganization & Restructuring:

The group has been recognized as one of the premier restructuring and reorganizing practices in the United States. It represents chapter 11 debtors, lenders, creditors, acquirers, ad hoc and official committees, trustees, directors, managers and other parties in restructurings, loan workouts, reorganization proceedings, and in bankruptcy and insolvency related litigation. Attorneys from the group, acting as either lead or local counsel, have had major roles in virtually every significant chapter 11 case to be filed in Delaware over the last three decades.

Commercial Transactional/Alternative Entities:

The firm provides a complete range of commercial law services including advice on all types of alternative entity matters. It handles a variety of complex transactions including working with in-house and outside counsel in structuring and documenting such transactions.

Corporate Counseling:

The firm advises clients on complex corporate transactions and corporate governance issues. It represents boards of directors or board committees, particularly in transactions that may involve director or stockholder conflicts of interest. It also provides formal legal opinions on matters of Delaware corporate law. Corporate Counseling lawyers have long played an important role in drafting and updating Delaware's corporate statute.

Corporate Litigation:

The firm's corporate litigation practice focuses on matters related to the law governing corporations and alternative entities. Its proceedings in the Delaware Court of Chancery, Delaware Supreme Court and other courts throughout the US often involve derivative suits or class actions brought in connection with M&A transactions, takeover battles and proxy contests or other claims alleging director negligence or misconduct.

General Business Litigation:

The firm provides a full range of general litigation services, appearing before all of the Delaware trial and appellate courts, state and federal, local boards and administrative agencies and before trial and appellate courts nationwide. It represents clients in commercial, contract and business disputes of virtually every kind.

Intellectual Property:

The firm is at the forefront of the development of IP law and has the reputation as the premier patent litigation firm in Delaware. It has achieved preeminence in IP litigation in Delaware and nationwide serving as lead counsel in many cases and assisting as co-counsel in other cases brought to Delaware by patent litigators nationwide. In one role or the other, the firm is counsel in nearly half of the intellectual property cases pending in the District of Delaware.

Real Estate:

The firm's real estate practice covers the negotiation and documentation of complex commercial real estate including transactions involving the development, acquisition and sale of commercial property, commercial financing, condominium development, office, retail and industrial leasing and public-private development.

Regulation/Governmental Affairs:

The firm represents public entities and agencies, and private sector clients, before legislative bodies and city, county, state and federal regulatory agencies on unclaimed property and other matters. It is actively involved in monitoring, drafting and advocating legislation and regulations that affect clients.

Trust, Estate & Tax:

The firm acts as trust and fiduciary litigation counsel to Delaware trust companies, national banks conducting trust business in Delaware, individual trustees and beneficiaries of trusts in Delaware and other jurisdictions, and to wealthy families with trusts in Delaware. It also provides federal income, estate, gift and generation skipping transfer tax advice to individuals, trusts, estates, business enterprises and their owners, and charitable organizations nationwide.
