With nearly 40 years of patent litigation experience, Jack has built a reputation as the “dean of the Delaware IP bar” (Chambers USA 2017). Jack handles a unique mix of lead counsel, Delaware counsel, and co-counsel roles. Clients regularly turn to him in situations with a high risk of exposure that demand a thorough understanding of the complex legal and technical issues involved.

Jack’s extensive experience includes pharmaceutical, medical product and biotechnology matters, as well as technology disputes involving computers, software and telecommunications. He has tried cases in various district courts and argued before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

Jack has served as lead counsel for clients including Pfizer, UCB, Comcast, Thermo Fisher and Agilent, among many others, in patent and trade secret cases. His clients include major companies such as Amgen, Allergan, Gilead, Bayer, AbbVie, Johnson & Johnson, Shire, Astellas, Alcon, Edwards Lifesciences, Google, Intel, Symantec, PayPal, Nokia, Activision, Electronic Arts and Plantronics.

Jack has received numerous awards and recognitions, including having been named Delaware litigator of the year by Managing Intellectual Property each year since 2014. Chambers USA peer-review sources report that he is the “top Delaware IP lawyer” (2018) and “in a class of his own” (2017).
