ADMISSIONS

Delaware, 2003

Tarik's practice covers a range of commercial transactions including mergers and acquisitions, secured financings, joint ventures, securitization and business counseling. Tarik also provides alternative-entity related advice in the context of transaction and alternative entity litigation.

Tarik also focuses on organizational and operational issues related to limited liability companies, limited partnerships and statutory trusts. In addition, he regularly represents sponsors and conflicts committees of master limited partnerships ("MLPs").

He is involved in the preparation of third-party legal opinions in connection with a range of transactional matters, and he regularly counsels other attorneys domestically and internationally on matters relating to Delaware partnerships, limited liability companies and statutory trusts. Chambers USA recognized Tarik among leading Delaware practitioners in the Corporate/M&A: Alternative Entities area since 2019. He has also been recognized by The Legal 500 US for his M&A commercial work.

Tarik is a member of the Delaware State Bar Association ("DSBA") Statutory Trust Committee, responsible for updating the Delaware Statutory Trust Act.

Tarik is a frequent presenter and writer on issues relating to Delaware alternative entity law and secured transactions. He also serves as a member of the Editorial Board of Business Law Today, the ABA Business Law Section's monthly business law publication.

Tarik also serves on the Morris Nichols Executive Committee and Lawyer Development Committee and he chairs the firm's Diversity Committee.
